

“ If not for the job, I probably would have been married off by now.”

Heena was a diffident young girl from Dharwad.

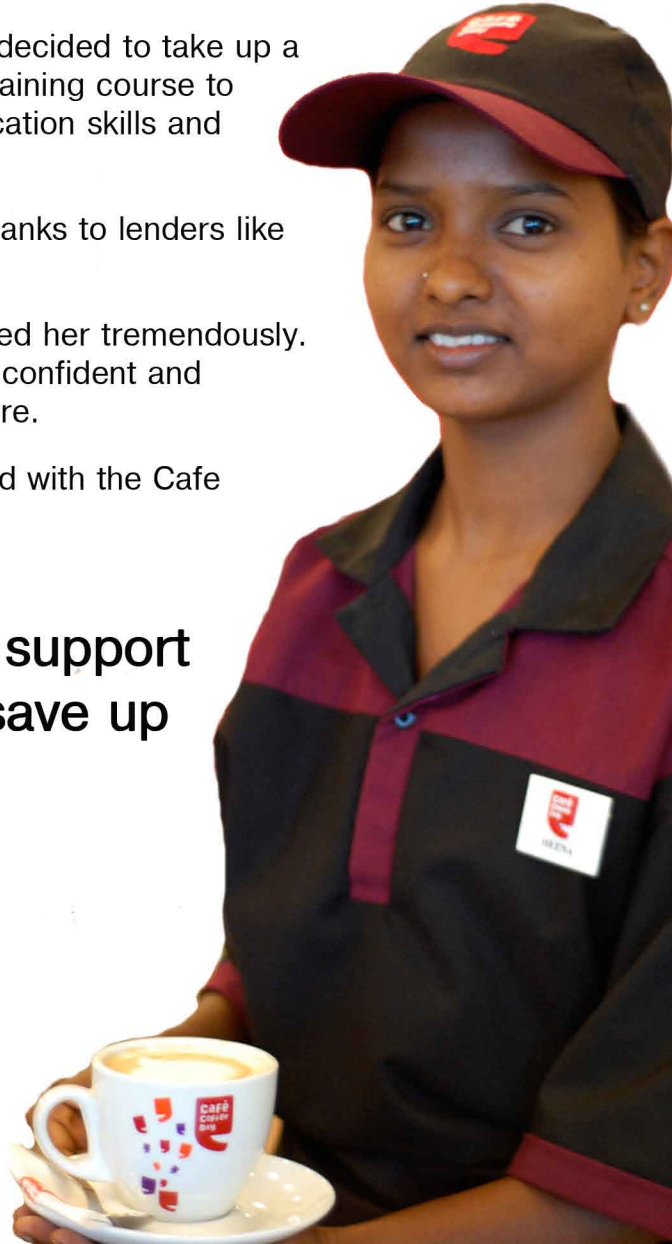

In June this year, she decided to take up a loan for a vocational training course to improve her communication skills and fluency in English.

The loan was raised thanks to lenders like you, through Milaap.

The course has changed her tremendously. She feels more savvy, confident and independent than before.

Today, she is employed with the Cafe Coffee Day at Hubli.

Heena can now support her family and save up for a degree.
