

“I only want a bright future
for my daughters.”

Kavitha is an artisan, and a young mother of two from Byrathi. Despite having two incomes, the family could barely make ends meet.

Thanks to a loan raised through Milaap, Kavitha was able to expand her manufacturing business.

With her increased revenue, she can now save more.

She can also afford to send her two young daughters to a good school.

Kavitha is self-sufficient. And she creates job opportunities for other women.

Loan A Little. Change A Lot.
