

Loan A Little. Change A Lot.

“I can take care of my brother’s school fees.”

Earlier this year, Vasim from rural Karnataka decided to take up a vocational training course that would make him more employable.

His English-speaking skills improved. He learned how to use a computer. And he found a job!

This youngster now holds a job at a supermarket in Bangalore.

Vasim’s dreams are beginning to take shape.

